VIRGINIA AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

I. Policy Sheet

Board Policy

A. Written Communications

Board members shall communicate with branch counterparts as follows:

1. Official AAUW OF VIRGINIA media (email, newsletter and the web page) should be used for general communication. Email communications should be clearly addressed to the branch position and cc'd to the branch president and state board members.
2. If necessary, communication may also occur through DATED letters. Copies of such letters are sent to:
 - a. AAUW OF VIRGINIA president;
 - b. state historian if the material is of historical value;
 - c. appropriate board members; and
 - d. appropriate Association staff.

B. Annual Reports

Board members shall prepare a biennial report for inclusion in the conference program book in even years. In odd years the finance and membership vice presidents shall submit reports plus others as requested.

The number of copies and instructions for preparing the report shall be determined by the president. If requested, an oral and/or written report may also be presented at conference.

C. Files

Board members shall maintain files and are responsible for passing them on to their successor(s).

1. The following materials are to be kept for three years:
 - a. annual and biennial reports;
 - b. AAUW OF VIRGINIA president's communications, as appropriate ;
 - c. AAUW OF VIRGINIA newsletters, board minutes, conference minutes, and other pertinent material.
2. Canceled checks, receipts, vouchers and other such materials should be kept seven years. Finance vice president's reports, budgets, and ledgers are archival and should be preserved.
3. Materials to be kept until superseded:
 - a. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Bylaws;
 - b. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Board of Directors Handbook;
 - c. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Public Policy Priorities;

AAUW OF VIRGINIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS HANDBOOK

- d. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Resolutions; and
 - e. any form letters, etc., that may help successor.
4. Materials to be sent to the AAUW OF VIRGINIA historian are resource materials of value to AAUW OF VIRGINIA and include information on significant state projects which are not a part of the conference program book.
- D. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Branch and District Visits
1. Official visits are those approved by the state president, partially reimbursed by AAUW OF VIRGINIA, and outlined below. Additionally, branches and districts are welcome to invite state board members for unofficial visits with the understanding that AAUW OF VIRGINIA will not reimburse any expenses.
 2. Each district shall be entitled to one official visit from the AAUW OF VIRGINIA president each year.
 3. Each district shall also be entitled to an additional official visit from a state board member each year.
 - a. The request for an official visit from a board member shall be forwarded to the AAUW OF VIRGINIA president for approval.
 - b. Within two weeks after the visit, a report shall be forwarded by the district and by the travel visitor to the state president.
 4. Official visits to branches by the president or other state board members shall be allowed within the constraints of the budget. Mileage distances to branches shall be considered in assigning the specific board member to visit the branch.
 5. Expenses for official visits shall be reimbursed for travel at the current rate per mile. The district shall provide overnight lodging and meals, if necessary.
- E. Expense Reimbursement
1. Reimbursement for AAUW OF VIRGINIA board members.
 - a. Travel expenses shall be paid for:
 - (1) AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference.
 - (2) AAUW OF VIRGINIA board meeting.
 - (3) district visits under the AAUW OF VIRGINIA Travel Policies.
 - (4) special committee meetings for state business as authorized by the president.
 - (5) president or representative, on AAUW OF VIRGINIA business.
 - b. Computation for reimbursement is as follows:
 - (1) travel at $0.30 per mile. Board members are encouraged to travel together, when possible.
 - (2) hotel at $30 per night, maximum.
 - (3) meals at regular board meetings; meals for which cost is incurred will be reimbursed up to $10 per day; any planned meals shall be at no cost to the board members.
 - (4) AAUW OF VIRGINIA Conference

AAUW OF VIRGINIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS HANDBOOK

- (a) registration fee.
 - (b) hotel at current state rate.
 - c. If the parliamentarian for AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference is not a board member, expenses are charged to and reimbursed from conference funds.
2. Association Convention Funding
- a. The AAUW OF VIRGINIA board will budget in odd years for the Association Convention.
 - b. Reimbursement will be made in July following the convention.
 - c. Association Convention Funding
Funds shall be allocated from the AAUW OF VIRGINIA budget to help defray the president's expenses at the Association Convention. As the budget permits, funds may be allocated for additional board members attending the full convention, to be split equally.

F. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Conference

1. The conference host branch shall appoint a local arrangements chair at least 14 months in advance, who will work with the AAUW OF VIRGINIA president, conference chair, program vice president, and other appropriate board members on the local arrangements for the conference.
2. The conference registration fee shall be established and a budget, including all estimated expenses and income, shall be adopted at the fall board meeting or no later than the January conference call preceding the conference.
3. There shall be no refunds after the conference deadline except meal costs may be refunded if the person cancels in time for the meal to be cancelled with the hotel or caterer.
4. Conference accounts shall be settled by June 15. Any monies remaining after that time shall be returned to the state treasury.
5. It is desirable for a conference to yield neither a surplus nor a deficit.
 - a. If a surplus results, the funds should be allocated to maintain a $2000 conference reserve line item in the budget. At the discretion of the finance committee, with board approval, a surplus may also be used to:
 - (1) subsidize branch attendance at future conferences;
 - (2) subsidize specific costs of future conferences; or
 - (3) allocate to the general operating fund of AAUW OF VIRGINIA.
 - b. If a deficit results, the deficit shall be paid out of the conference reserve line item.
6. All conference financial records including bills, receipts, vouchers, canceled checks and bank statements should be mailed with the financial statement to AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference chair by June 15.
7. The conference financial report should be mailed to the continuing or incoming state finance vice president by July 1 so the budget for the upcoming year can be prepared.
8. The conference chair should present a written report to the AAUW OF VIRGINIA president by July 1.
9. The conference books as well as brochures, evaluation summaries, other pertinent information, and all conference records should be transferred to the AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference chair or the program vice president by July 1 so appropriate materials may be passed on to the next local arrangements chair.

10. AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference chair shall provide the AAUW OF VIRGINIA historian with one copy of the conference program book.
11. Other material shall be weeded to keep pertinent records, including one conference program book and stored by the conference chair or the program vice president. Records of the last four conferences shall be stored. Others may be discarded.
12. See also Conference Chair job description.

Vision* Publication Schedule and Procedures

A. Publication schedule and contents

Each issue will include articles and information of interest to members, such as, timely branch, state, and National news; AAUW OF VIRGINIA committee and/or activity reports; announcements; and other articles as requested by the AAUW OF VIRGINIA Board of Directors.

At least once a year the newsletter will contain a directory of AAUW OF VIRGINIA Board of Directors, roster of branch presidents, state budget, annual calendar and Association convention reports. The various issues shall be published:

- No. 1 Containing at a minimum: directory of AAUW OF VIRGINIA Board of Directors, roster of branch presidents, state budget, annual calendar, and reports/summaries of National conventions. (Deadline September 15)
- No. 2 Containing at a minimum: date and place of the next AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference, voting and elections guide, proposed state public policy, resolutions, bylaws amendments, and updated calendar of events. (Deadline January 15)
- No. 3 Containing at a minimum: A report of the state conference, elections and other business items on the One Member, One Vote ballot; summer/fall meeting information. (Deadline May 15)

B. Procedures

- 1. Order address file for members without an email address, for a fee, from National, prior to the newsletter distribution date. Include addresses of Virginia College/University partners and addresses of members who have opted to receive print copy. AAUW of Virginia Historian should also receive print copy. Ask printer to send vision editor 5 copies to have on hand..
- 2. Email Address-file and PDF file of Vision to printer when ready.
- 3. Distribute Vision via online link to all members via email. Mail Vision using nonprofit bulk mail to members with no email address (as of January 2015). Notify finance vice president when to expect billing for print edition and postal expense.
- 4. When changing printers, obtain bids from at least three printers. Printer changes would be determined by the Vice President of Communications and the Vision copy editor.
- 5. Send one copy to the AAUW OF VIRGINIA historian. Keep 5-10 copies of each issue on file.
- 6. Verify bills as requested by the finance vice president.
- 7. Consult/confirm with finance vice president for amounts of expenses related to the newsletter for use in preparing future budgets.

For more details on the procedures see pages 30 -32 of the handbook.

Policy on Diversity

AAUW OF VIRGINIA affirms the diversity statement adopted by the AAUW board of directors and the Conference of State Presidents in June 1988, the AAUW Educational Foundation board of directors in September 1988 and as revised at the Association Convention in 1991:

“In principle and in practice, AAUW OF VIRGINIA values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or class.” These shall be referred to as “underrepresented groups” in this document.

AAUW OF VIRGINIA will support diversity by the following:

A. Membership Recruitment and Development

1. Membership campaigns shall stress the pride and power of a diverse AAUW membership.
2. Branches shall be encouraged to determine an appropriate target group to increase diversity.
3. All state and branch publications shall include the statement: “AAUW OF VIRGINIA values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or class.”

B. AAUW OF VIRGINIA Program

1. Programming shall seek to increase member awareness of issues of concern to women of under-represented groups.
2. Collaboration, coalitions, and networks with organizations for underrepresented groups by the state and branches shall be encouraged.
3. Speakers, panel participants, trainers, and facilitators at AAUW OF VIRGINIA conference and other events should include women of underrepresented groups.
4. Workshops or programs shall be presented at AAUW OF VIRGINIA conferences to sensitize members to the barriers faced by underrepresented groups.

C. Meeting Sites and Times

1. All AAUW OF VIRGINIA meetings shall be accessible to the physically challenged, and publicity about events will carry accessibility information.
2. AAUW OF VIRGINIA shall use only those meeting sites that welcome all people.
3. No AAUW OF VIRGINIA meetings will be held on the following major religious observances: Easter, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Passover, and Christmas.

D. Branches are encouraged to adopt a similar diversity policy.

Policy on Participation in Coalitions and Other Organizations

- A. The AAUW OF VIRGINIA board of directors recognizes the value of joining together with other organizations to achieve a common objective. Through such coalition efforts we may be able to achieve economic use of resources and multiply our impact.
- B. When joining with other organizations, AAUW will retain control of the use of the name of the American Association of University Women.
- C. Financial support can include dues or a similar share of the administrative costs and/or a commitment to participate in the on-going financial support of the common objective.
- D. In the event that AAUW OF VIRGINIA is asked, at any time other than within two weeks before an AAUW OF VIRGINIA board of directors meeting, to support an agenda change proposed by a multi-issue coalition of which it is a member, the executive committee, in consultation with the public policy committee, shall act for the board of directors. The committee's decision should be consistent with AAUW historic principles and potential for impact.
- E. If there is a question regarding whether participation in a coalition is appropriate, the state should contact the Public Policy Department, AAUW, 1111 Sixteenth Street NW, Washington, DC 20036 for further guidance.

Policy on Website and Online Communications

Note: Unless noted otherwise, the term “AAUW” refers to AAUW of Virginia.

The AAUW of Virginia website, aauw-va.aauw.net, and online communications provide information and services in furtherance of AAUW’s mission to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

This policy is designed to maintain the integrity of AAUW on the World Wide Web and in other online communications and to avoid the use of AAUW’s name in ways inconsistent with its image, mission, policies, and programs.

- A. aauw-va.aauw.net (Including Logos, Written Content, Photographs, Graphics, Video, and Audio)
1. The policy addresses two audiences:
 - a. AAUW members, branches, branch members, national members, partner member institutions, student affiliates, and interbranch councils
 - b. Other users
 2. Website content is developed by AAUW of Virginia’s state board of directors in consultation with leaders and members, and the website is maintained by the state webmaster. Any inquiries about the website or this policy should be directed to the state president or state webmaster.
- B. Any entity or individual who uses, accesses, or links to aauw-va.aauw.net—including logos, written content, photographs, graphics, video, and audio—is bound by this policy. Use of, access to, or linkage to aauw-va.aauw.net shall constitute acceptance of and agreement to be bound by the terms in this policy. Entities or individuals who do not wish to be bound by these terms should not use, access, or link to aauw-va.aauw.net. AAUW has the right to restrict or revoke access to any entity or individual that violates any provision of this policy.
1. AAUW Members (Including Branches, Branch Members, Partner Member Institutions, Student Affiliates, and Interbranch Councils)
 - a. AAUW members may use aauw-va.aauw.net in AAUW branch websites and online notices for AAUW activities. Standardized logos and placement specifications are provided through the national AAUW Member Center at www.aauw.org.
 - b. AAUW members shall not amend, alter, distort, or otherwise change the standardized AAUW logo or any placement specifications.
 - c. AAUW members may reprint materials in accordance with this policy provided that credit is given to the AAUW of Virginia website and usage is consistent with AAUW’s mission, policies, and programs.
 - d. aauw-va.aauw.net cannot be linked to or used for personal or professional financial or political gain.
 2. Other Users
 - a. aauw-va.aauw.net (including but not limited to text, content, photographs, video, and audio) is protected by copyright as a collective work or compilation under U.S. copyright and other laws. Other users must abide by all additional restrictions in this agreement.
 - b. Other users may create Web links to any URL on aauw-va.aauw.net so long as such link is for educational and informational purposes; in furtherance of AAUW’s mission to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research; and consistent with

AAUW policies and programs. Use may not create an implication of AAUW's endorsement of or affiliation with any third party.

- c. Without the explicit written permission of AAUW of Virginia, other users may not copy, reproduce, distribute, , display, perform, modify, create derivative works, transmit, or in any way exploit aauw-va.aauw.net, except that external users may download material for their own personal, noncommercial use. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, other users may not distribute any part of this service over any network, including a local area network, nor sell nor offer it for sale. In addition, aauw-va.aauw.net may not be used to construct any kind of database.

C. Links from aauw-va.aauw.net

1. aauw-va.aauw.net links only to websites that are affiliated with, working with, or supported by AAUW or web pages that support AAUW's mission to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research, and are consistent with AAUW's policies and programs.
2. AAUW is not responsible for any content on sites or web pages linked from aauw-va.aauw.net.
3. AAUW does not support or endorse any activities on third party sites that may not be consistent with AAUW's mission, policies, and programs.

D. Social Media

AAUW of Virginia uses social media, including a Facebook page and a Twitter account. AAUW encourages members to utilize those. While posting on those sites is protected by the right of free speech, AAUW expects civil discourse and discussions and posts related to AAUW's mission, goals, priorities, events, and meetings and member accomplishments. Opinions and statements are those of the individual member. AAUW reserves the right to remove or not post any materials of external users that AAUW considers to be objectionable or outside its mission. Notwithstanding the reservation of this right, AAUW is not responsible for any material posted by any external users.

E. Privacy

AAUW is committed to protecting the privacy of people who use aauw-va.aauw.net.

1. General Browsing Information

Visitors to aauw-va.aauw.net remain anonymous, and AAUW does not attempt to obtain or retain personally identifiable information except as specifically stated, such as meeting registration. AAUW may maintain general aggregate information, such as the number of visitors to the site, which pages are most often viewed, or from which sites visitors have arrived.

2. Third-Party Sites

aauw-va.aauw.net has links to third-party sites. Since AAUW does not control those websites, individuals are encouraged to review the privacy and other policies posted on these third-party sites.
