Title of program:

The STEM Gap: Building a Better Future for Girls and Women

Branch Name:

Mt Vernon

Was the program:

- In-person in a meeting room

Short overview of the program: Briefly describe the content, including the name and title of any speakers.

"The Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields will account for some of the fastest growing-- and highest paying--jobs of the future." AAUW, "The STEM Gap"

Please include any other information you deem important:

Speaker, Kathleen (Kathi) Hanrahan, retired from IBM in 2018 as a software executive. Now serves on 2 non-profit boards. She is Women in Technology (WIT) Board Member-at-Large for Emerging Leaders, responsible for their Girls in Technology (GIT) suite of STEM programs. Kathi is a Mt Vernon Branch member.