

Title of program:

Supreme Court Insights - Then and Now

Branch Name:

Alexandria

Was the program:

- In-person in a meeting room
- Virtual

Short overview of the program: Briefly describe the content, including the name and title of any speakers.

The program was presented by Maina Vaidya, a dynamic high school senior who has a website called BeginsWthUs.org, representing an organization whose mission is to mobilize youth for social change. She did a study on Roosevelt's attempt to pack the Supreme Court and compares it to Biden's attempts.

The program was interesting, hearing about the Supreme Court, how it has changed, how it could be better, but it was also interesting to just listen to Maina talk and to hear her views about the future.
